

Shaw Webmail

Canada's Resident individuals and Non-resident individuals Tax Refund letter

From : TAX Masako Wendlandt
<molvdyk91tk@clubmember.org>

Fri, Mar 24, 2017 08:59 AM

Subject : Canada's Resident individuals and Non-resident individuals Tax Refund letter

To : c [REDACTED]

As a Canadian you apparently observed that big chunk of your earnings is reduced as income tax. But, the great news is that some money can be returned to you.

- A tax compensation amount depends on a lot of aspects such as total income, withheld tax amount, time spent in the country and others.
- You can register for tax refund if you paid your tax income during the past 10 years.
- It does not cost to apply for tax refund.
- It is very easy to get a tax refund.
- Please complete your personal tax T1 Tax Return form and send it to addresses provided below.

T1 Return form: https://www.cra.gc.ca/download_form_223124285642

Resident individuals:

The following addresses below only to mail your tax refund form.

Send T1 form to the following: For residents served by Tax Offices in:

Tax Centre

PO 14006, Station Main Winnipeg MB B3C 3M5

Alberta, Saskatoon, Windsor, British Columbia, and Regina.

FOR Non-residents:

Mail your T1 form to:

International and Ottawa Tax Services Office

POB 8768, Station K

Ottawa ON K1G 1Y3
Canada
