

2017 CPA ALBERTA FELLOWSHIP RECIPIENT

Rob Heron, FCPA, FCA, CFP

At the 2017 Elevate Awards Gala, June 2nd, our Assurance and Advisory Services partner, Rob Heron, was honoured with The Fellow of Chartered Professional Accountants (FCPA) award. The Fellow of Chartered Professional Accountants is granted to those members who have rendered exceptional service to the profession or whose achievements in their careers, the community, or in the profession have earned them distinction and brought honour to the profession.

¹“A partner at Kingston Ross Parnak LLP, Rob earned his designation in 1993 and has spent his entire career at the firm. He has brought honour to the CPA profession through his career achievements and wealth of service to the community. His long-term commitment and leadership on various volunteer boards, including the Capital Region Housing Corporation, Edmonton Eskimos, Sturgeon Community Hospital Foundation, and Kids Kottage Foundation, have been an integral part to those organizations’ successes. In all of his efforts, both professionally and in the community, Rob’s exceptional dedication and leadership continues to have many positive contributions throughout our community.”

A message from Rob:

“I would like to acknowledge so many friends, board colleagues and leaders whom I’ve had an opportunity to work alongside. These exceptional individuals share my beliefs and convictions to make our community and province stronger and more vibrant. They continue to inspire me professionally and personally to share all of my talents and time. Most notably, I’d like to recognize the wonderful people at Kingston Ross Parnak LLP and my family, whom have supported and encouraged me throughout my professional journey to date.”

¹ Excerpt taken from the 2017 Elevate Awards Gala program guide.